IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Jeremy Pinson,
Plaintiff,
vs.
United States of America,
Defendant

CV 20-00070-TUC-RM

DECLARATION OF JESSE REY

I, Jesse Rey, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, and based upon my personal knowledge and information made known to me from official records reasonably relied upon by me in the course of my employment, hereby declare as follows relating to the above-entitled matter.

14 1. I am the Complex Captain at the Federal Correctional Complex in Tucson, 15 Arizona (FCC Tucson). I have held this position since April 25, 2021. I have been 16 employed by the Federal Bureau of Prisons, in positions of increasing responsibility, since 17 2003.

18 2. FCC Tucson includes a high-security United States Penitentiary (USP
19 Tucson), a medium security Federal Correctional Institution (FCI Tucson) and a minimum 20 security Federal Prison Camp (FPC).

21 3. As Captain, I am the chief correctional supervisor and am responsible for the 22 Correctional Services Department at FCC Tucson. My job includes, among other things, 23 supervising all other correctional officers, evaluating staffing and security needs and 24 overseeing the security measures and procedures at FCC Tucson.

25 4. The information provided in this Declaration is based on my personal 26 knowledge and information obtained in the performance of my duties at FCC Tucson. All 27 attachments to this declaration are true and accurate copies of Bureau records maintained in 28 the ordinary course of business. The transcripts are transcriptions of audio recordings made

1 from non-contact visits at USP Tucson between Jeremy Pinson and Dorothy Chao, which 2 were recorded on the stated dates in the ordinary course of business.

3 Plaintiff Jeremy Pinson

4 5. As part of the performance of my duties, I have become familiar with inmate
5 Jeremy Vaugh Pinson, register number 16267-064.

6 6. Pinson is a federal inmate at USP-2 Coleman, Florida. (Att. 1, SENTRY
7 Inmate History, p. 1 ("CLP" is the facility code for USP-2 Coleman).

8 7. From February 15, 2018, to December 4, 2020, Pinson was incarcerated at 9 USP Tucson. Id. ("TCP" is the facility code for USP Tucson).

10 8. Pinson is serving an aggregate sentence of 252 months for violations of 18
11 U.S.C. § 871(A), Threats Against the President; 18 U.S.C. § 1001(A)(2), False Statement; 18
12 U.S.C. § 876(C), Threatening a Juror, and 18 U.S.C. § 876, Mailing Threatening
13 Communications. (Att. 2, SENTRY Public Information Inmate Data, pp. 2-3.)

14 9. Pinson is projected to be released from custody on September 8, 2026. (Id. at 15 1.)

16 December 16, 2019

17 10. On December 16, 2019, inmate Billy Dugard struck Pinson with a closed fist
18 in the dining hall at USP Tucson. (Att. 3, Form 583 Report of Incident – December 16, 19 2019, p. 3.)

20 11. Dugard admitted striking Pinson and asserted it was because he was having a 21 bad day because his father had died the week before and Pinson had been making
22 disrespectful comments to him. (Att. 4, Inmate Investigative Report, p. 4.)

23 12. Dugard specifically denied having been paid to strike Pinson. (Id.)

24 13. Pinson has claimed Dugard struck her at the behest of inmate Cruze under 25 various theories.

26 14. In an undated hand-written note, Pinson asserted that on December 15, 2019,
27 Cruze had threatened an inmate, even if he had to "attack staff to get to" him. (Att. 5, Pinson 28 undated note.)

1 15. In an interview on December 20, 2019, during the investigation of the 2 December 16, 2019, incident involving Dugard, Pinson asserted that her life was in danger
3 from Cruze, along with three other inmates. (Att. 4, p. 4.)

4 16. The three inmates denied having any issues. (Att. 4, p. 5.)

5 17. Two different inmates wrote that Cruze had placed a hit on Pinson from the 6 SHU. (Att. 4, p. 6.)

7 18. The investigation could substantiate only that continued animosity existed
8 between Pinson and Cruze. (Att. 4, p. 7.)

9 19. Pinson asserted in a letter to the OIG on December 25, 2019, that the incident
10 occurred because she had cooperated with SIS Technician Cristinzio on December 14, 2019, 11 by providing information about Cruze's drug dealing, money transfers and threat against an 12 identified inmate who was not Pinson. (Att. 6, OIA-2020-03689.)

13 20. In an SF-95 dated January 12, 2020, Pinson asserted that

14 Inmate Shawn Cruze made threats to stab and kill USP Tucson
15 inmates on 12-14-19 and I reported it to Lt. Eastwood and SIS Cristinzio.
16 Staff disclosed to Cruze my providing this information resulting in Cruze sending a note with an inmate getting out of SHU to an inmate Billy Dugard instructing him to physically attack me. That inmate attacked me in the Dining Hall.

17 (Att. 7, SF95 12-16-19.)

18 21. During the investigation into Pinson's October 2019 PREA complaint, Pinson
19 was interviewed by Lt. Herlich and stated that Cruze was trying to impress another inmate
20 and making threats against Pinson for bringing the PREA complaint. (Att. 8, Inmate
21 Investigative Report - PREA, p. 3.)

22 22. Cruze was interviewed as part of the investigation. (Att. 8, p. 4.)

23 23. The PREA suspect was interviewed and stated that he had been buying
24 Pinson's medication from Pinson while they were housed together. (Id.)

25 24. The suspect stated that when Pinson had a new cellmate, the suspect started
26 buying Pinson's medication from the cellmate. (Id.)

27 25. The suspect stated that he paid for the medication, and Pinson refused to turn
28 it over. (Id.)

1 26. The suspect also stated that Pinson had tried to put a hit on him. (Id.)

2 27. Inmate kites that appear to have been written by Pinson and Cruze support the 3 statements regarding Pinson's cellmate selling Pinson's medications and Pinson or her
4 cellmate having tried to put out a hit. (Att. 8, p. 8.)

5 28. The investigation concluded that the PREA allegation was unsubstantiated
6 and that the animosity between Pinson and the suspect stemmed from Pinson's failure to 7 uphold a deal involving her selling her medication to the suspect. (Att. 8, pp. 8-9.)

8 29. None of the witness statements substantiated Pinson's claim that Cruze had 9 threatened her. (Att. 8, pp. 4-8.)

10 30. Cruze was sent to the SHU on December 15, 2019, at 9:21 a.m. (Att. 9, 11 SENTRY Inmate History Quarters Cruze.)

12 31. Pinson admitted to a visitor that on December 16, 2019, at 2:00 p.m., she was 13 aware that Cruze had sent a kite from the SHU putting a hit on her. (Att. 10, Transcript of 14 December 22, 2019, visit between Pinson and Dorothy, pp. 4-6.)

15 32. Pinson also stated in a December 16, 2019, statement that she had been 16 warned about the hit at 2:00 p.m. and again at 5:00 p.m. (Att. 11, Pinson's December 16, 17 2019, Statement.)

18 33. Instead of reporting the hit to staff or accepting offered bodyguards, Pinson
19 admitted she went to dinner, while planning to go to the lieutenant's office after dinner. (Att.
20 10, pp. 5-6.)

21 January 17, 2020

22 34. On January 17, 2020, inmate Oberfeldt assaulted Pinson on the soccer field.
23 (Att. 12, Form 583 Report of Incident – January 17, 2020, p. 3.)

24 35. Plaintiff returned to USP Tucson at 8:10 p.m. on January 17, 2020. (Att. 13, 25 January 17, 2020, Lieutenants Daily Log.)

26 36. The pill line finished at 8:05 p.m. on January 17, 2020. (Id.)

27 37. Inmates in SHU may purchase acetaminophen and ibuprofen from the prison
28 commissary. (Att. 14, Memorandum re SHU Standardization, p. 3.)

1 38. Plaintiff's cellmate obtained ibuprofen from the prison commissary on
2 January 29, 2020. (Att. 15, Cellmate Sales Invoice January 29, 2020.)

3 39. The same day, instead of purchasing acetaminophen or ibuprofen, Plaintiff
4 purchased Halls SF Honey Lemon, a Legal Envelope and allergy tablets. (Att. 16, Plaintiff
5 Sales Invoice January 29, 2020.)

6 40. On January 18, 2020, the day after she was assaulted, Plaintiff met with a
7 volunteer, Dorothy Chao. (Att. 17, Transcript of January 18, 2020, visit between Pinson and 8 Dorothy Chao.)

9 41. Plaintiff noted that her nose was painful and swollen on the inside. (Ex. A,
10 Att. 17, pp. 4, 16.)

11 42. Plaintiff did not complain about having a concussion, any symptoms of a
12 concussion or lacking medical care or pain medicine. (Ex. A, Att. 17.)

13 Bureau Policies on Threat Assessments

14 43. No federal statute, policy or regulation sets out the precise steps that must be 15 taken to ensure the safety of a prisoner. Instead, the program statements, which are based on 16 regulations and statutes, provide that the decisions are left to the discretion and judgment of 17 the Bureau personnel performing threat assessments.

18 44. 28 C.F.R. § 541.27 gives explicit discretion to prison staff to evaluate threats
19 by providing that an inmate "may" be placed in SHU as a protection case if, "based on 20 evidence," staff believes his safety may be seriously jeopardized by placement in the general
21 population. (Att. 18, Program Statement 5270.10, Special Housing Units, p. 8.)

22 45. An inmate may be placed in administrative detention status for protective 23 custody if the inmate is a victim of an assault or is being threatened by other inmates, if the 24 inmate is threatened because he or she is perceived to have provided information or 25 assistance to staff or law enforcement authorities or if the inmate refuses to enter the general
26 population because of concerns for his or her safety. (Att. 18, pp. 6-8.)

27 46. Whenever an inmate is placed in protective custody, staff conducts an 28 investigation to verify the reason for the placement.

1 47. If the need for protective custody is verified, the inmate will, at the Warden's
2 discretion, remain in such custody or be transferred to an institution where protective custody
3 may not be necessary.

4 48. If the staff investigation fails to verify the need for protective custody, the 5 inmate will be returned to the general population.

6 49. If the inmate refuses to return to general population, the inmate may be 7 subject to disciplinary action.

8 50. Investigating staff weigh information from a number of sources in 9 determining the validity of an alleged threat and how to respond to the threat.

10 51. Such factors include the source and credibility of the information at the staff 11 members' disposal, the resources available to address credible threats and the rights of 12 inmates at the institution.

13 52. Policy does not dictate a particular response; instead it affords the officials 14 discretion to exercise correctional judgment in evaluating and responding to an alleged 15 threat.

16 I declare under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that the foregoing is 17 true and correct to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.

18 EXECUTED: January 13, 2022, in Tucson, Arizona.

DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT (If Use Of Force, include details such as name of supervisor applying the chemical agent and/or restraints, reasons for use of hard restraints instead of soft restraints, etc.) Please be clear about cause(s) of the incident in your description.

On December 16, 2019, at approximately 5:36 PM, staff announced, "Inmates fighting in Food Service." Specifically, inmate [REDACTED], Reg. No. [REDACTED] approached inmate Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16267-064, at the front of the serving line and struck inmate Pinson about the head and upper body, with a closed fist several times. At that time, inmate Pinson struck inmate [REDACTED] about the head and upper torso area. Responding staff directed the inmates to cease their disruptive behavior, but inmate Pinson was over inmate [REDACTED], so Food Service Staff immediately placed inmate Pinson to the ground, with the least amount of force necessary to gain control of the inmate. Both inmates were then separated, placed in hand restraints and escorted from Food Service. Both inmates were photographed, medically assessed on camera, scanned in R & D, and provided a urine sample. Both inmates sustained superficial injuries consistent with being in a physical altercation, but none requiring medical attention at a local hospital. Both were placed in Special Housing without further incident. All notifications were made.

No staff were injured.

UOF was conducted.

OC was not deployed.

Conclusion:

At the completion of the investigation, it was determined Inmate Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16267-064 was assaulted by inmate [REDACTED] in Food Service on December 16, 2019, at approximately 5:36 PM. Specifically, inmate [REDACTED] approached inmate Pinson at the front of the serving line and struck Pinson with a closed fist. A statement provided by [REDACTED] stated he should have not hit Pinson for the disrespectful comments made to him by inmate Pinson. Additionally, [REDACTED] stated he has no animosity toward Pinson and would like to return to the compound to program.

Furthermore, information was received during this investigation that inmate [REDACTED], sanctioned a "Hit" for a monetary value of $500 dollars on inmate Pinson due to continued issues between the two inmates. S.I.S. staff received two written emails from inmates on the yard which stated the assault on Pinson was a hit ordered from the Special Housing Unit by [REDACTED]. During the interview with inmate [REDACTED] he stated, "I was not paid to hit Pinson, it was purely based off of Pinson's disrespectful statements to me." Furthermore inmate [REDACTED] denies any involvement in the assault of Pinson and provided a statement, stating, "I don't fuck with Pinson and I never put a hit on that dude." [REDACTED] stated, "I have no animosity toward Pinson and just wish to go back to general population and program." However, information from inmates in the Special Housing Unit and an email received by FCC Tucson S.I.S. department from the [REDACTED] contradicts that statement. In the [REDACTED] email she references extortion, animosity and paperwork checking by inmate Pinson towards inmate [REDACTED]. However, none of these allegations by [REDACTED] could be substantiated.

Based off the information received in this investigation it was concluded animosity exists between inmates [REDACTED] and Pinson and if allowed to program on the same yard would possibly result in an act of violence. No animosity exists at this time between inmate [REDACTED] and Pinson over the assault.

Recommendation:

It is recommended Inmates Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16267-064, return to general population to continue his programming needs.

It is recommended inmate [REDACTED] remain in the Special Housing Unit pending a transfer to another institution to continue his programming needs.

Furthermore, at the completion of the disciplinary process inmate [REDACTED], should return to the general Population to continue with his programming needs.

Complete all items - Insert the word NONE where applicable.

A CLAIM SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE BEEN PRESENTED WHEN A FEDERAL AGENCY RECEIVES FROM A CLAIMANT, HIS DULY AUTHORIZED AGENT, OR LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE, AN EXECUTED STANDARD FORM 95 OR OTHER WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF AN INCIDENT, ACCOMPANIED BY A CLAIM FOR MONEY.

Failure to completely execute this form or to supply the requested material within two years from the date the claim accrued may render your claim invalid. A claim is deemed presented when it is received by the appropriate agency, not when it is mailed.

If instruction is needed in completing this form, the agency listed in item #1 on the reverse side may be contacted. Complete regulations pertaining to claims asserted under the Federal Tort Claims Act can be found in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 14. Many agencies have published supplementing regulations. If more than one agency is involved, please state each agency.

The claim may be filed by a duly authorized agent or other legal representative, provided evidence satisfactory to the Government is submitted with the claim establishing express authority to act for the claimant. A claim presented by an agent or legal representative must be presented in the name of the claimant. If the claim is signed by the agent or legal representative, it must show the title or legal capacity of the person signing and be accompanied by evidence of his/her authority to present a claim on behalf of the claimant as agent, executor, administrator, parent, guardian or other representative.

(b) In support of claims for damage to property, which has been or can be economically repaired, the claimant should submit at least two itemized signed statements or estimates by reliable, disinterested concerns; or, if payment has been made, the itemized signed receipts evidencing payment.

(c) In support of claims for damage to property which is not economically repairable, or if the property is lost or destroyed, the claimant should submit statements as to the original cost of the property, the date of purchase, and the value of the property, both before and after the accident. Such statements should be by disinterested competent persons, preferably reputable dealers or officials familiar with the type of property damaged, or by two or more competitive bidders, and should be certified as being just and correct.

I was then placed into the SHU on these false fighting charges. Officer T. Schneider repeatedly and within hearing of other inmates called me an SIS Snitch and laughed and made jokes celebrating the attack upon me before taking 30 postage stamps from my wallet stating "gotta keep these before you try to sue somebody." Several days later he put me in a cell with [REDACTED] who began pressuring me for sex that day and sexually assaulted me by grabbing my breast without consent and threatening me with bodily harm. When placing me into [REDACTED] cell directly across from inmate [REDACTED] on A-Range, T. Schneider stated to [REDACTED] "Kill this bitch this time" to which [REDACTED] replied "I've been trying bro." I filed a PREA on [REDACTED] with Dr. Licata and suffered an emotional breakdown. She separated me from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Staff denied me clean clothing, linens, sanitation supplies, beard trimmers, my legal files in pending cases for weeks in SHU, denied me a holiday boy on Christmas, and verbally harassed me on a daily basis. My PTSD and Depression steadily worsened until I was suicidal. On Jan. 9, 2020 the DHO expunged all false charges against me and apologized for my ordeal. Despite this staff refused to release me from SHU and continue to do so to retaliate against me for my lawsuits against USP Tucson and BOP employees. The Warden and AUS Salomensen and Capt. McWhorter are deliberately holding me in SHU to continue to victimize me as they have done following repeated violent attacks upon me by other inmates who are rewarded with early release from SHU when I am the victim so these individuals can keep me in SHU and use my victimization as an excuse to try to transfer me. Staff tell me these individuals "hate" and "despise" me.

THat would be like [REDACTED] asking you to do something. He's trying to impress Grace, (referring to inmate Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16262-064), but he looks like a fool. If you want, I'll pass this kite to [REDACTED] but trust me, its not necessary. That dude has 'NO' say in any thing and he was way out of line just putting [REDACTED] in his stupid bullshit behind Grace. Are you serious? Fuck no! But I'm gonna tel [REDACTED] to tel [REDACTED] to either move down or apologize for acting gangster and be quiet. This is little kid shit-It's not my thing-I'm about Real Money-You are smarter than this. But I'm still gonna holler at [REDACTED]

A PP37 quarters assignment for inmate [REDACTED] and inmate Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16267-064, showing that both inmates were assigned together to cell 139 on A range from June 17, 2019 through June 26, 2019.

Conclusion:

Based on the information obtained during interviews with the inmates named in this investigation, possible witnesses and the use of other S.I.S. related databases, it was determined the PREA allegation of repetitive Sexual Harassment (Verbal) involving inmates Jeremy Pinson, Reg. No. 16267-064 and [REDACTED] as the perpetrator, is found to be UNSUBSTANTIATED, due to being unable to obtain any evidence of an actual occurrence.

During interviews with inmates connected to this investigation, it was concluded that inmate Pinson and inmate [REDACTED] were involved in a continued deal revolving around the sale of inmate Pinson's daily medication for illicit means. It was further concluded after inmate Pinson failed to uphold the deal, at which time inmate [REDACTED] began to have issues with Pinson and his cellmate [REDACTED] who he stated was controlling to drugs on behalf

4 MS. CHAO: (Indiscernible).

5 MS. PINSON: Oh, my goodness.

6 MS. CHAO: And what happened to you?

7 Are you okay?

8 MS. PINSON: Yeah. It's -- it's crazy.

9 There was an individual in general population, and he 10 came to me at breakfast not yesterday but the previous 11 Saturday.

12 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

13 MS. PINSON: And he basically said that he 14 was going to stab somebody in my unit that's a friend
15 of mine. And he said, "So I want you to go back to the 16 unit, and I want you to tell him that this is what's 17 going to happen later today."

18 And it was myself and three other
19 individuals that were asked to carry this message.
20 And essentially, you know, it's a long walk from the 21 dining hall to my unit, because my unit's the farthest
22 away from the dining hall.

23 But on the walk back, I just -- I was like
24 I'm not delivering this message, you know. And as a
25 litigator, I can think of 100 things that could go

1 wrong --

2 MS. CHAO: Right.

3 MS. PINSON: -- delivering a message like
4 that. And so I just -- I said no, I'm not delivering 5 this message. I went to the officer's station in my 6 unit and I said, "Could you please tell the lieutenant
7 that I would like to speak with him?"

8 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

9 MS. PINSON: And so the officer kind of 10 looked at me and he's like, "Well, what is it about?
11 Why can't you go whenever there's a move?"

12 And I'm like, "Well, because somebody
13 wants to stab somebody else, and that might possibly be 14 a priority thing that I should talk to him about."

15 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

16 MS. PINSON: And so he looked at me and 17 he's like, "Oh, okay." And he calls the lieutenant.

18 Well, he sent me up to the lieutenant's
19 office. And so I'm telling the lieutenant the threat
20 that was delivered, and he's like, "Well, why would 21 this guy want to stab somebody?"

22 And I gave him somewhat of an outline of 23 how these guys had come to be in this situation.
24 Essentially, the guy sending the threat is a drug
25 dealer, and he brings Suboxone into this institution,

1 and he sells it to other prisoners.

2 So he's like "Well, I'm just a lieutenant,
3 so maybe I need to get one of the intelligent staff."

4 So they bring the staff member over, and
5 she's asking me what's going on. And she's, you know,
6 basically like "So these two individuals here, the one
7 that made the threat and the one that was the intended
8 target, those are the two people that I need to lock up
9 immediately until I can go look at all this other
10 stuff."

11 And I said, "Yeah." And by the second,
12 I'm just like more not wanting to be --

13 MS. CHAO: Involved.

14 MS. PINSON: -- in none of it. And they
15 were -- I think they were surprised that I reported it
16 at all. But then they did lock the guy up right after 17 count time Saturday morning.

18 So I went out Monday to a medical trip to 19 see an endocrinologist about my hormone therapy. And I
20 got back at like 2:00, and I went outside to our 21 softball field for the last hour of rec for the day.
22 And when I went out there, one of my friends tells me,
23 he's like, "You know, they put a hit out on you and the 24 other three." And I was just like...

25 MS. CHAO: What?

Pinson vs

1 MS. PINSON: Yeah. He's like, "Yeah, they
2 sent a kite out of the SHU today, saying that if
3 somebody hits you, they get $500. And if somebody
4 takes out all four of the people" -- because, you know,
5 the guy who's the drug dealer, he doesn't know which of 6 the four, that knew about the threat, had given it to 7 the staff. And so his idea of a solution was to offer
8 $500 if they managed to hurt me, and $1,000 if they 9 managed to hurt all four.

10 So I heard this at 2:00. And, you know,
11 prison's a place with rumors and gossips and craziness.
12 And so I try not to act on every single thing I hear.
13 I try to stop and think carefully and gather the facts
14 before I react to something.

15 So after that, I went into my unit, and
16 right before I went to dinner, a guy called me --
17 another guy -- actually, one of the four called me into 18 his cell and he was really agitated and he was kind of 19 walking back and forth and he was just like, "Grace,
20 you know this guy put a hit on us, right?"

21 And I said, "Yes, I know he put a hit on 22 us. And I'm going to go eat my dinner, and I'm going 23 to address it right after dinner."

24 Because my intention was, I was going to 25 go to the lieutenant's office and say, "What the fuck?"

1 How does somebody get a letter out of the SHU?"

2 MS. CHAO: Right, yeah.

3 MS. PINSON: Like it's insane, but 4 whatever.

5 So he's like, "Well, just be careful.

6 I'm telling you to be careful."

7 And so there were four or five guys he 8 wanted to send with me and he's like, "Listen, until 9 you can talk to whoever you need to talk to, I'd like 10 you to stay put and stay close to these guys, you
11 know."

12 And I just looked at him and I said,
13 "The day I need bodyguards in Tucson, I've got 14 problems." And so I told the guys, I said, "Look, I 15 don't want y'all hovering around me when I'm trying to 16 go eat my dinner."

17 And so they were like, "All right. Well, 18 we're going to stay at distance, but we're not just 19 going to let you go up there all by yourself."

20 And it sure as hell didn't matter because 21 I went through the metal detector, I walked into the 22 town hall, there's a serving line that you've got to 23 wait in as people get their trays. And when I got to 24 the window where I got my tray, you have to hold your 25 ID up and it has a barcode on it, and they scan it to 1 document that you got your meal.

2 MS. CHAO: Right.

3 MS. PINSON: So I grabbed my tray, and as
4 I was lifting the ID to scan, just boom. A guy walked
5 up and punched me right in the face, standing like
6 two feet away from the CEO.

7 MS. CHAO: Wow.

8 MS. PINSON: I mean, to his credit, the 9 officer just -- you know, he dropped his thing, and he 10 grabbed ahold of the guy and basically was trying to 11 hold him like this while the other cop set off his 12 alarm and all the other cops come in.

13 So he only actually got to hit me once.
14 But naturally, it comes with a bunch of BS. One of 15 which is putting me in the SHU.

16 I don't know -- for the life of me, I
17 don't know why the officer who was standing there, he 18 wrote me a discipline report that said I was fighting.
19 And the captain of the facility here, and basically,
20 as I asked everyone afterwards, for the last week they 21 would come to my cell and they said, "Look, we've 22 watched the video. They're going to throw this 23 disciplinary report out."

24 But unfortunately, you still have to go
25 through the normal process of signatures to get out of

1 the SHU. And because it's Christmastime, half the 2 people that need to sign my release from the SHU are 3 not even here, and there's no one acting in their 4 position. So unfortunately, I'm supposed to be getting
5 out of the SHU soon.

6 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

7 MS. PINSON: Probably quicker than the 8 average stay back there, but...

9 And the guy -- it's crazy because they had 10 me in the SHU on this one range for like four days, and 11 then they moved me into a cell directly across from the 12 guy that put the hit on me in the first place.

13 And he was looking at me this morning, and 14 he wasn't saying anything, but I was just standing
15 there looking at him. And he's like, "Really, Grace, 16 did we have to go through all this?"

17 And I'm just like, "You're fucking insane.
18 You're a fucking sociopath."

19 And it's like why would you do that to me?
20 I don't run around this place trying to play fucking
21 detective.

22 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

23 MS. PINSON: But what did you expect?
24 Like you put me in a position to deliver a message to 25 my friend, saying that you're going to stab him.

1 What kind of friend would I be to go back to my unit
2 and say, "Hey, this guy told me in the town hall today
3 that he's going to stab you later. Have a nice day."
4 Like what did you expect?

5 And he's just like, "Well, I don't want no
6 more trouble because they're going to end up, you know,
7 keeping people in the SHU a long time and everything
8 else."

9 And I said, "Well, it's wonderful that
10 you've developed some communication skills in the week
11 that you've been back here. Why didn't you just" -- 12 you know, because at this point, I don't even know how 13 many people have been locked up behind this whole
14 thing. But I know for a fact there's at least four of 15 us in the SHU, and there's probably more.

16 And I was just like, "What is wrong with 17 you?"

18 You know, a part of being in prison is you
19 see things all the time: drug deals, you know, illegal
20 use of communication. There's all types of stuff that 21 happen in the prison. And if you have any sense,
22 eventually, you get to the point where, unless there's 23 a very compelling reason to do so, you just walk like a
24 horse on blinders.

1 MS. PINSON: You don't see no evil, hear

4 MS. PINSON: And I'm just so frustrated
5 with this guy. And the AW was talking to him the other
6 day, and my cellie turned around and he started
7 laughing, and he said, "Did you hear what the AW told 8 Cruz?"

9 And I said, "No."

10 And he said, "The AW said, 'Man, don't 11 give me that bullshit and try to play it like you're 12 innocent.' "

13 And I was just like, "Oh, my God."

14 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

15 MS. PINSON: So yeah, I'm in the SHU.

16 And you know, I don't -- I don't have any
17 issues about whether I'm going to beat this bogus
18 disciplinary report, because I have a video on my side.
19 I never did anything to try to hit the guy back.

20 He punched me in the face and got tackled, you know.

21 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

22 MS. PINSON: I think I probably sustained

24 than anything, but that's their standard procedure.

2 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

3 MS. PINSON: Oh, my goodness.

4 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

5 MS. PINSON: So yeah. And now --

6 MS. CHAO: Why was this guy -- well, I
7 know I can't understand it. But why would he pick out
8 four of you, and then it's like, "Tell him I'm going to 9 go do this. And tell this guy I'm going to do this,"
10 you know?

11 MS. PINSON: Because he has made a lot of 12 money selling drugs.

13 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

14 MS. PINSON: And he's one of those 15 unfortunate cases that I see from time to time of 16 someone who suffers from serious delusions of grandeur.
17 You know, he -- unfortunately, in this environment,
18 money makes a huge difference in terms of how you're 19 treated and what powers you have amongst your peers.

20 And, you know, he just got out of the SHU
21 27 days ago. He spent six months in the SHU, same as I 22 did.

23 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

24 MS. PINSON: He was part of a different
25 investigation in a whole different matter, but

Pinson vs

12

1 nevertheless, he was in the SHU right alongside me that
2 whole time. And in less than 20 days, he has himself
3 back there under another massive investigation.

4 And, you know, when I was kind of having a
5 little tirade with him this morning, I was like it
6 just -- "The money wasn't enough for you. You couldn't
7 be happy with the fact that you're making so much money
8 in prison, there's no way for you to spend it all. But 9 you couldn't be happy with that. You wanted money, and 10 then you wanted power. And you used money and drugs to 11 gain power from your little associates in this prison.
12 And you decide that now that you have power, the first 13 thing you're going to do with it is to start hurting
14 people."

15 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

16 MS. PINSON: And I told him, I said,
17 "Dude, I've looked at your legal work before, and 18 you're doing a life sentence. He's a state prisoner
19 being housed in the federal custody for his own safety.

20 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

21 MS. PINSON: But now he wants to come into 22 the federal system and play Scarface. And I was just 23 like, "What is wrong with you?"

24 You know, I think that his reaction was 25 much the same as that of the officers in that, "Well, I

Pinson vs
United States of America

13

1 didn't think you were going to fucking do anything
2 about it."

3 And it's like, "Well, I'm sorry that your 4 perception of me is that I would just let one of my
5 friends blindly walk into something that could kill
6 them. Because, you know, sometimes when people stab
7 people, they die, you know."

8 MS. CHAO: I'd say that's a common
9 outcome, yeah.

10 MS. PINSON: Yeah. It's like why would
11 you pick me? You know he's my friend, and you know I
12 care. Why would you pick me, of all people that you
13 could have asked? You had 1,000 other people that you
14 could have asked to deliver this message. You chose me
15 and three people that I'm close to.

16 And I think the point of the other three
17 guys is, he knew that they would just follow my lead.
18 So if I said handle it this way, that's probably how 19 they would decide to handle it too.

20 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

21 MS. PINSON: But I can't, for the life of 22 me, understand why he thinks that I would just do
23 nothing. "Here ya go. You might die today. Have a 24 nice Christmas." No.

4 my safety is not in jeopardy going forward, but even
5 having to go through all this, it's so frustrating,
6 because it's Christmastime. I do not want to be back
7 in the SHU right now --

8 MS. CHAO: Right.

9 MS. PINSON: -- for Christmas at all, much
10 less with a cellmate that I just -- every day I wake up
11 and I'm like, oh, my God, let me get out today.

12 MS. CHAO: He's not -- the cellmate's not 13 a threat to you, is he?

14 MS. PINSON: No, he's not. He's just a

16 MS. CHAO: Oh, okay. Okay.

17 MS. PINSON: He doesn't talk very much,
18 but when he does talk, he wants to argue about

20 books, and he likes to remind me that he's 43 and I'm

4 And he's like, "Well, you handled that
5 situation completely wrong, youngster. You should 6 have" -- and it was like, I got this.

7 And, you know, I mean, so naturally, he 8 wants to bring up the age thing, so I'll just "I've got 9 this, Grandpa. Relax."

10 MS. CHAO: I've got you, Grandpa. That's 11 pretty good.

12 MS. PINSON: Right. But it's like, oh, my

21 MS. CHAO: You certainly -- you certainly
22 appear to be in better spirits than I was anticipating.

1 I'm like, oh, no.

2 MS. PINSON: It's -- I don't know. It's
3 like morbidly comical.

4 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

5 MS. PINSON: You know, it's actually funny
6 because when the cops took me down, -- you know, I was 7 in the middle of a dining hall with 200 people sitting
8 around eating their food and just looking like holy 9 crap. And they're yanking my hands behind my back, and 10 I'm just face down on the floor, and I just started
11 laughing. And the cop said, "What's so fucking funny?"

12 And I was just like, "Everything." Oh, my 13 goodness.

14 MS. CHAO: It's like you have to laugh to 15 keep from crying sometimes when things get, you know...

16 MS. PINSON: I know I was looking over at 17 the table where I normally sit and some of the guys
18 sitting there were just shaking their heads. Look what 19 you've got yourself into now.

20 But I've been in this situation before,
21 unfortunately. I actually got written up one time for 22 assault and all kinds of craziness because a guy was 23 having a seizure. I tried to help him --

24 MS. CHAO: Oh, no.

25 MS. PINSON: -- and, you know, all the cop

1 saw was that there's a guy laying on the ground with 2 blood all over his face and I'm holding onto him. And
3 so his natural instinct is what they train them to do,
4 which is to send assistance.

5 So he hits his alarm and comes out there,
6 and he's trying to get me out of the way. And I ended
7 up going to the SHU, and it was just a big mess.

8 And even though they knew by the end of 9 that day, watching the camera, what had happened, they 10 still wouldn't let me out of the SHU for like two 11 weeks. And if there's anything just totally brain dead
12 about the Federal Bureau of Prison, it's that they have 13 no system in place to correct when they are wrong.

14 MS. CHAO: Yes.

15 MS. PINSON: And so even when they're
16 wrong, they still process you as if they were right.
17 And it's just like, whatever.

18 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

19 MS. PINSON: But I didn't get my bag of 20 Christmas goodies this year, and I'm not happy about 21 it. But other than that, I'm okay. There's really not 22 much to even say about it. It's just --

23 MS. CHAO: It's so --

24 MS. PINSON: -- frustrating.

25 MS. CHAO: Yeah. So the guy that hit you

Pinson vs

18

1 in the cafeteria, is he in the SHU too?

2 MS. PINSON: Yep.

3 MS. CHAO: Yeah. And the four -- or the 4 three are your friends, are they --

5 MS. PINSON: I don't know where they're
6 at. You know, I don't know if they're back there in 7 some other area or if they're out there and they're 8 trying to, you know, make sure that they're all right.

9 I mean, I would assume that -- you know,
10 they didn't want to let that guy out of the SHU when 11 they did, because he was already involved in a pretty 12 serious drug conspiracy that people got hurt as a part
13 of, you know. And he really was lucky to get out of it
14 the first time. And, you know, the investigator -- one
15 of the investigators said to me, "You know, he thinks 16 he's untouchable because he got out of the SHU. And in 17 truth, he just -- he got really lucky."

18 And I don't imagine that -- I don't know
19 what -- I know how -- I know the officers were happy to 20 see me get hit in the face, and they make their 21 smart-ass remarks every day in the SHU. But it's like,
22 all right, whatever, part of the course, right?

23 But the executive staff, I imagine, are 24 probably a little bent out of shape because, you know,
25 a fight is bad enough to begin with, but to have me be

Pinson vs

Reporter's Transcript of Recorded Audio

1 the victim of an assault in such a situation, it comes
2 with a whole lot more attention and documentation.

3 You know, the guy that hit me, he was
4 basically in a SHU cell in like 10 minutes. He went 5 from the dining hall, they stripped him out, put him in 6 a holding cage, assigned him a cell, gave him a
7 mattress, and was like, here.

8 Me? No. I had to sit for three and a
9 half hours in a holding cell, two medical assessments.
10 One of them videotaped. You know, they were 11 videotaping me and the officers and the responding
12 staff.

13 So, I mean, they wouldn't have had to do
14 that for me to know that it would be dealt with 15 differently just because it involved me. But I don't 16 envy that guy.

17 MS. CHAO: No.

18 MS. PINSON: I don't imagine that this is 19 going to end well for him. And I don't -- it's just 20 sad because this guy could very easily have talked his 21 way through this problem, you know. And it just shows
22 you how random sometimes misfortune can be, you know.

23 Going to that morning, the only reason I
24 went is -- I don't even really eat breakfast. I was 25 going because I have to go pill line at breakfast time.

20

1 And if I hadn't had to go to the pill line, I wouldn't
2 have even been up there, you know.

3 And it doesn't make a lot of sense to me
4 because I don't know exactly what he thinks he's gained
5 by all of this. Because it looks to me like he's lost
6 everything.

7 And it could have been much worse for me,
8 but it wasn't. And I'm not sure that if I were in his 9 position, punching me in the face and taking me hostage
10 in the SHU for a couple weeks probably would not have 11 been worse. Everything else he gave up. But that's me
12 trying to apply my rational mind to irrational people
13 in an irrational place.

14 MS. CHAO: Well, it seems like though
15 that's -- yeah. Because I'm just trying to figure,
16 like you said, irrational people in an irrational life
17 and what's going to happen next.

18 MS. PINSON: I mean, I don't know.
19 I guess it takes a special kind of person to want to 20 get yourself a light sentence in prison and your idea
21 of what you should do with your time is to become a
22 prison drug kingpin and start hurting the other people
23 serving time with you.

24 MS. CHAO: Right.

25 MS. PINSON: I don't think that that idea

Pinson vs

21

1 has ever really crossed my mind, that I want to do
2 something like that.

3 I mean, I have a lot of very cynical views
4 about prison systems and the criminal justice system in 5 general. I have plenty of criticisms for how this 6 place is managed and operated, but never once has the 7 idea fluttered across my brain, I'm going to be a major
8 drug dealer in prison, when I'm already serving a life
9 sentence.

10 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

11 MS. PINSON: But I --

12 MS. CHAO: Yeah. I mean --

13 MS. PINSON: And they're trying to figure
14 it out. Because, I mean, the way they usually deal
15 with stuff like this is somebody goes to the Challenge
16 Program, to the SHU. Well, you know that ends their 17 program. They just have to go and reapply and do all 18 these things.

19 And, you know, I asked one of the 20 psychologists in the SHU about that, and she's like,
21 "Well, I'm pretty sure they're going to try to figure 22 something out in your case because you were the 23 victim."

24 But it's very frustrating.

25 MS. CHAO: Yeah. All the stuff you went

1 through to get a little extra in the building and then
2 like you were in the (indiscernible).

3 MS. PINSON: Yeah.

4 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

5 MS. PINSON: I don't even know what to say
6 about it sometimes.

7 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

8 MS. PINSON: It's hard to keep an
9 optimistic viewpoint.

10 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

11 MS. PINSON: It's hard, but, you know, I
12 guess to a point, I'm just very stubborn in that way,
13 that no amount of hardship is going to change my view
14 that the right ideas and the right effort behind them
15 will prevail in the end, you know.

16 And I think that to the extent that people
17 who have known me for a long time, I think that people 18 respect that resilience, because it is ideological on 19 some level.

20 But on another level, there's a lot of 21 sacrifice and commitment to that idea. I could very 22 easily sit in this prison and do what these other
23 people do. I could deal drugs, and I could get high
24 all day every day, and I could not care about what's 25 going on in the world, and I could let television and

1 music and the prison culture be everything that I pay
2 attention to, you know.

3 But I feel like the prison sentence is bad
4 enough, but to surrender your identity, to surrender
5 what makes you you, to become a faceless thing and 6 number in a prison world?

7 You know, I told one of the cops the other
8 night when he moved me across from the guy that had 9 caused me to be attacked in the first place, this cop
10 was just running his mouth. And they're moving my 11 stuff, and I'm just looking at him, and he's like, "You
12 got anything you'd like to say? It looks like you want 13 to say something."

14 And I said, "Rest assured, if I had 15 something to say, I would say it. But since you seem 16 to be itching for a statement, I love the fact that 17 I've rented so much space in your mind that you feel 18 the need to stand here and rant and rave at me."

19 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

20 MS. PINSON: You know, a lot of prisoners
21 ask me like, "How do you possibly not go crazy with 22 them poking at you like every day?"

23 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

24 MS. PINSON: One of the officers today,
25 you know, he came to the door, and he said, "Hey, I

1 heard about that fight. They say that guy beat the 2 shit out of you."

3 And I said, "Yeah, he did. And the worst
4 part of it, I didn't have any toilet paper on me."

5 And it's like what do they want me to say?
6 I'm not feeding into that. It's nonsense.

7 MS. CHAO: That's right. Exactly.

8 MS. PINSON: But, you know, so I do try to 9 find some levity in this. And I'm going to give them a 10 reasonable opportunity to do their job and to do it the 11 right way, you know. I'm not going to drown them in 12 lawsuits and paperwork right away. I'm going to give 13 them a good faith opportunity to do the right thing and 14 expunge this idiotic disciplinary report and send me
15 back to my program unit.

16 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

17 MS. PINSON: And I hope that in light of 18 the fact that I'm a victim here, they can be amenable
19 to that and maybe just once step out of their standard
20 way of doing things.

21 And I have quite a bit of hope that that's 22 what they're planning to do here, you know. It's not a
23 typical thing for the captain, who is the head of 24 security here, to come to the SHU and tell somebody
25 they need to get rid of that stuff because I watched

1 the video. You were a victim, you know.

2 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

3 MS. PINSON: But if it weren't the
4 holidays, I might possibly already be back in my unit.
5 The holidays complicate everything, and I'm trying to 6 play devil's advocate and say yes, there is a more
7 efficient way to do this, but it's not bordering on 8 malicious yet.

9 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

10 MS. PINSON: You know, give it a few days.
11 But it is frustrating though.

12 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

13 MS. PINSON: I didn't want to spend
14 Christmas back there locked in a cell.

15 And I feel bad for people like Shaun Cruz.
16 And I know that's probably the opposite of what people
17 would typically say about a man who used money to 18 cause -- done physical harm, but I do. And I do
19 because I recognize that his future is very dark, and 20 his past has been very dark. And he's a very unhappy
21 human being inside.

22 And it tends to be those kinds of people
23 that do the most damage in here, you know, the people
24 who don't have a future to look forward to outside of 25 this. And even though this was physically and somewhat

1 emotionally traumatic, I didn't feel bad for him,
2 because I know that this is not necessarily my future,
3 certainly not until the end of my life. But for him,
4 it is.

5 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

6 MS. PINSON: And for him, this is what he
7 has to look forward to, waking up every single day
8 until the day he doesn't wake up again. And I probably 9 should feel anger, but I don't. I pity him.

10 MS. CHAO: That's -- I think that's
11 amazing. I think it's really amazing with everything
12 that's happened to you and your core, you just haven't 13 let that be corrupted and you still have empathy for -- 14 even for people who do you in, you know. I think 15 that's pretty amazing.

16 MS. PINSON: Well...

17 MS. CHAO: I mean, I certainly respect it.

18 MS. PINSON: I've read Mechi, and Mechi
19 had some interesting points. But his philosophy was a 20 very dark one.

21 And I know that I made a lot of really bad
22 choices in my life prior to and for a huge chunk of my 23 early incarceration. And there was no possible way of 24 making a situation worse than I wasn't willing to just,
25 let do this too, you know. And eventually I found

27

1 myself in the darkest place that the criminal justice
2 system had for you, which essentially is the Super Max
3 in Colorado, you know.

4 And sometimes it still amazes me that I
5 can honestly say that the Bureau of Prisons classified
6 me, at one time, as being the same level of 7 dangerousness as El Chapo or the Boston Bomber or --
8 you know. And I guess when I look in the mirror, I
9 don't -- I don't see someone like those type of people.

10 But obviously, if they had me in that 11 institution, then that means some people with some 12 pretty high rank in government believed that that was 13 the type of person I was, and that's where I needed to 14 be.

15 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

16 MS. PINSON: And I like to think that when 17 you get to the farthest, darkest, lower part of a hole,
18 the goal should be to go up, right? There's nowhere
19 left to go down.

20 MS. CHAO: No.

21 MS. PINSON: And so I look at my past like
22 that. I look at it as I went as far as you could go.
23 The only thing that was left for me was death itself.
24 The only thing that I hadn't achieved yet, in terms of 25 doing wrong, had been the taking of life, you know.

1 And I believe that those experiences were extremely
2 traumatic to me, but I also believe that they were life
3 changing as well. Because my perspective on everything
4 in life is very different now. And I think that all of 5 that suffering has mostly given me a very acute sense
6 of suffering in other people.

7 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

8 MS. PINSON: And I don't think that in the 9 end, I'm going to be judged by my decisions when I have 10 an abundance of choice. I think the things that I'll 11 be remembered for most, eventually, will be the 12 decisions I made in moments where people probably would 13 not have been able to fault me if I had made a really 14 bad decision, you know.

15 My cellmate, you know, he argued with me
16 yesterday.

17 MS. CHAO: Imagine that.

18 MS. PINSON: Yeah. And he believed that 19 the best way forward in this situation for me would be 20 to rally all of the people who liked me and all of the 21 people who wished to protect me and to turn every one
22 of those people against the guy across the hall.

23 And, you know, I politely, but firmly
24 pushed back on his position and just said no.

25 And so finally, he made me mad, and I just

1 said, "You know, I don't think that I've been clear
2 enough with you because you seem to not understand that
3 I don't agree with you. And I don't agree with you
4 because I'm just reflexively being stubborn; it's 5 because I've listened to what you have to say, and I
6 don't agree with any of it.

7 "So let me be clear. You're absolutely
8 right. I have the power to leverage my relationships
9 with other people for a violent counterattack. And I
10 know that I have that power, and I'm not going to use
11 it. I'm not going to use it because it doesn't make me
12 any better than him. And where does that stop?
13 Exactly where does it stop?"

14 Because I retaliate against him, and now
15 he and whoever I've injured are angry and then they 16 want to retaliate against me, and then it's just going
17 to become this thing, you know.

18 And I just asked him -- I looked at him
19 and I said, "Do you know what the original beef was 20 with the Crips and the Bloods?"

21 And he just...

22 I said, "Of course, you don't. Nobody
23 does. Nobody."

24 MS. CHAO: Okay. I was thinking you were 25 going to tell me.

1 MS. PINSON: Yeah. Well, I just looked at 2 him and I said, "Of course, you don't. Nobody does."

3 Everybody knows that these are two very 4 large gangs that all they do is kill each other. And 5 some have taken a monopoly on the color red, and some 6 have taken monopoly on the color blue. But walking in 7 the wrong part of town in Los Angeles with the wrong
8 color T-shirt on can get you killed. But I doubt
9 you're going to find very many people that could tell
10 you how they got started.

11 I'm not going to be the person who starts
12 a type of chain of events. I'm not, you know.

13 And then he totally switched it on me, and 14 he said, "Well, you should have took your" -- "the guys
15 that were there to protect you (indiscernible). What's 16 wrong with you?"

17 And I was like, you don't get it. Like 18 I'm not the type of person that wants other people to 19 suffer so that I can suffer less. It doesn't make any 20 sense. It's bad either way, you know.

21 If I were to let somebody else take that 22 punch for me, then I would just be sitting in the 23 general population emotionally distraught for a
24 different reason. Because now I'm sitting out there
25 and I'm worried about the harm that has come to someone

1 that I care about, who was trying to protect me.

2 But, you know, I always like to remember a
3 book I read. I read a book one time that said there's 4 people -- people have two kinds of conversation after 5 someone's funeral. There's the thing that they say at 6 the funeral and at the wake and, you know, all that
7 stuff. And then there's what they say when it's not a
8 formal thing to sit around and talk about, right?

9 And so I think of that sometimes, what I
10 read in that book, you know, what would people say at 11 my funeral?

12 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

13 MS. PINSON: And if the only decisions
14 that I can make that are right are the decisions that 15 are easy, then I don't like to think what people will 16 say about me when I'm gone.

17 But if I make the same decisions and hold
18 to the same beliefs when everything in the world tilts
19 against that, and it would be so much easier to just 20 give in and say I'll do what everybody else does, so
21 then that would just be hypocrisy.

22 That would be me demonstrating to others
23 that nothing that I say I believe in, nothing that I
24 say that I think or I feel is true. It's all just a --
25 it's a facade to cover malice and animosity and evil,

1 you know.

2 And that's what I see when I look at some
3 of these guys. I see -- I don't want to say I see
4 darkness because I don't think that's really the best
5 adjective for it. But there are people sometimes and I
6 look into their eyes and I see nothing. There are 7 people in here like that. I look into their eyes, and 8 I see nothing.

9 And there are people sometimes that, you
10 know, they smile or they say something, and I look at 11 them and I smile too, but in my mind I'm thinking, your 12 face is smiling, but your eyes are not.

13 MS. CHAO: True.

14 MS. PINSON: And I don't know. I think if 15 they take control of my mind as well as everything
16 else, that that's the ultimate victory. I think if I
17 change for these people or I change how I see people or 18 how I feel about people, they won. They took hostage
19 my identity and what came out the other side of it is 20 something that I'm not, and I don't want to be. But it
21 ain't easy.

22 MS. CHAO: No.

23 MS. PINSON: But I don't see an
24 alternative. At least not alternatives that I'm 25 willing to accept, you know.

1 I've seen some people that I've known for
2 a very long time. You know, they go through the same
3 type of stuff. And there comes a day that, you know,
4 they decide, well, if you can't beat them, join them.

5 And, you know, oftentimes in situations
6 like that, these are people that will try to hide what 7 they're doing, you know. And I think it's because on 8 some level, they feel ashamed or they feel that they 9 don't want to tell me what they're up to because it
10 will disappoint me, and I won't want to be their friend
11 anymore.

12 And occasionally, I've had to take people
13 aside and just be like, what are you doing? Oh, I'm 14 not doing anything. And it's like, hello.

15 (Indiscernible.) I'm not a dummy. I know what you're 16 doing.

17 And I'll just tell people, "You know where 18 that road leads, right? All right. I won't join you,
19 but if you need somebody to talk to, I'm always here," 20 you know.

21 And he asked me this morning why I didn't
22 just deliver his message, you know.

23 MS. CHAO: Uh-huh.

24 MS. PINSON: And I told him, "It's a
25 matter of principle. It's a matter of integrity and

1 honor, and you should have known better than to give me

3 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

4 MS. PINSON: You play with fire, sometimes
5 you get burned.

6 And I don't know. There's a lot I don't
7 know. Too much that I don't know and will never know.

8 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

9 MS. PINSON: And, you know, I wish I could 10 sit here and struggle and pull a better answer out of 11 my ass, but I don't have all the answers. Not even 12 come close.

13 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

14 MS. PINSON: But I'm going to get through 15 this and, you know, hopefully, with minimal additional 16 trauma, as necessary. And hopefully, the next time you
17 come up here -- because, I mean, it's pretty obvious
18 that, you know, they're not intending to use this 19 particular matter to mess with me. You know, knock on 20 wood somewhere.

21 MS. CHAO: Yeah. Here. Here's a piece of 22 wood. Yeah.

23 MS. PINSON: Well, I can't say that it
24 would surprise me if they tried to use this in a way
25 that adversely affects me, you know. I didn't do

1 anything wrong, but sometimes the truth is not what --
2 right and wrong doesn't really matter.

3 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

4 MS. PINSON: You know, I am absolutely
5 certain that you know the truth of that. Sometimes it
6 doesn't matter.

7 But I'm definitely going to try to get
8 through this as quickly as possible. Go back to my 9 program, and hopefully, they take these guys and make 10 them someone else's problem.

11 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

12 MS. PINSON: But yeah, I'm ready for the 13 end of this. This is crazy, absolutely crazy.

14 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

15 MS. PINSON: On a good note though, the 16 Government is continuing to settle another one of my 17 cases. And it's especially funny because two weeks
18 ago, we just reached an agreement with the court that 19 they would have to give me a job in the education,
20 Chapel, psychology, or health services department.

21 And to try to kind of make sure that
22 nobody on the local level messes with our agreement,
23 the regional attorney is supposed to be working with 24 the executive staff here, and they were just going to 25 get the language of the agreement together after the

1 holidays.

2 So I don't know exactly how that's going
3 to affect things going forward, but it may add some 4 slight motivation to the people that, you know, sign
5 all these things and write all these reports and stuff.
6 It may motivate them to move a little more quickly.

7 MS. CHAO: Yes.

8 MS. PINSON: But it seems like it's -- if 9 you can believe it, it seems like the lawyers and the 10 justice department are being a little more flexible
11 with me. And I think a big part of that is that during 12 this multimonth process of negotiations, you do a lot
13 of talking in these things that isn't necessarily pure
14 legalese. It's just banter, you know. And I think 15 that these people are, or at least people in pretty
16 high positions of power, I think they're getting a
17 different view of me.

18 You know, I think the person that exists
19 on paper in their files, I think they have a much 20 different view of that because they're starting to 21 relax some.

22 I actually -- I was actually laughing.
23 I went out there two weeks ago, and we were 24 negotiating. And my unit counselor, she was sitting in 25 the conference room where the video equipment is at,

Pinson vs

37

1 but she was off to the side, so they couldn't see her.

2 But she could see me, and she could see them.

3 And she's just -- and so the guy comes on,
4 and he's sitting at his own conference table and he's 5 like, "Hey, how ya doing?"

6 And I'm like, "I'm fine. How was 7 Ireland?" Because I remember that he was going on a
8 vacation to Ireland. And so he's telling me about his 9 Ireland trip and some anecdotes about his kids, and he 10 was laughing and I'm laughing. But we talk like that 11 for maybe 10 minutes before we actually got in the nuts
12 and bolts of what we're there to negotiate.

13 And so towards the end, she thought that 14 he was done because he had gotten up and he kind of 15 walks off screen a little bit, and she comes over and 16 she says, "Who was that?"

17 And I looked, and he came back on the 18 screen, and he said, "What's that, Grace? Did you say 19 something?"

20 And I said, "No. My counselor is here.
21 She'd like to know who you are."

22 And he's like, "Oh, I work in the civil 23 division of the Department of Justice." You know, way 24 up the chain. And she just got this look, and I was 25 like, "All right, Joe. Have a good weekend, and I'll

1 see you at the next one."

2 And I pushed the button to turn the
3 microphone off, and she looks at me and she's like,
4 "Is that a conference room in Washington?"

5 And I said, "Yeah."

6 "In the Justice Department?"

7 "Yeah."

8 "Where the attorney general works?"

9 "Yeah."

10 She was just like huh. Oh, but it's so
11 funny because like I had to keep a straight face, but I
12 wanted to be just like so smug. Like, yeah, I saw so 13 many levels of the chain that you don't even know their 14 names.

15 I was joking about it with my cellie, and 16 my cellie is like, "Oh, you're terrible, Grace." And I
17 was like, well, it's what it is.

18 I have to find ways of constructively
19 occupying my time, you know. Well, I'm a huge advocate
20 for college training programs, vocational training,
21 all types of stuff like that in prison. And a big part 22 of that is that I know that although my activities have 23 been very adversarial, they've been performed in a very 24 constructive way.

25 And I think that the best thing that I

Pinson vs
United States of America

39

1 added to my old life that has brought some measure of
2 stability, such that stability even exists in my life,
3 it comes from a constructive application of my time and 4 my effort and my energy.

5 And, you know, you're always going to have
6 people that will be won over with greed. You know,
7 this guy in my unit -- or in the SHU, that did all this
8 to me, Shaun Cruz, he's a very likable person who's 9 very charming. He's very intelligent. And his skills 10 could be put to so much greater use, but he thinks that 11 money and drugs and power and all of the stuff that 12 comes with that are things that are going to fill this 13 void in his own heart, you know.

14 And I can't exactly sit down with the guy
15 and just be like, "Look, that hole inside you, you're 16 never going" -- "no amount of money in the world, no
17 amount of power or flunkies or whatever, that's never 18 going to fill that hole."

19 I've got the same hole, and it refuses to 20 be satiated. But I can't tell him that, you know.

21 But I think a lot of people in here would 22 benefit from structure, a different type of structure,
23 you know. And I hope that when I'm no longer inside
24 this machine, that I can alter the machine because it
25 doesn't have to be this way, you know.

1 MS. CHAO: Well, if it were truly about
2 rehab, I think it would be quite different, you know.
3 (Indiscernible) starting in, you know. A lot of people
4 are better off if they're kept busy. I'm better off if 5 I'm busy, you know.

6 MS. PINSON: I don't know. I think a lot
7 of my work in here has brought about changes, but I
8 also think a lot of it has just made me a symbol.

9 I think for a lot of inmates, I'm the 10 physical embodiment of this ideal of, you know, putting 11 idealism into practice, you know. I don't think that 12 most people in here have much to draw upon in terms of 13 specific examples of people that stand up to authority.
14 And no matter what they do, they're not broken by that 15 same authority, you know.

16 And there's many different things to be 17 said about that, you know, but sometimes being a symbol
18 is not good for the symbol.

19 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

20 MS. PINSON: You know. And I'm not so
21 sure that this guy -- I'm not so sure that this guy
22 would have made the same effort to get this message
23 passed by other people. And I think that a big part of 24 trying to get me to deliver that message was the weight
25 that would be added to the message by my delivering it,

1 you know.

2 And a big part of why I didn't go along
3 with this plan was because I felt that this guy was, in 4 some ways, hijacking my relationship with other people
5 to manipulate a situation, to get his way. And I
6 dislike that almost as much as I dislike the idea of 7 one of my friends being hurt over something so
8 intangible.

9 The cops have sometimes done that to me
10 before. And in some situations, I have let them do it.
11 And I've had situations where cops have said, "Hey,
12 this guy's on a suicide watch and he's flipping out and 13 yada, yada, yada. Can you go down there and talk to 14 him and see if he can chill out?"

15 And sometimes they say that, and I say no.
16 I'm not going down there and getting in that. It has 17 nothing to do with me.

18 Sometimes they've come and somebody is 19 literally in a crisis situation, like they've seriously
20 hurt themselves. And in those circumstances, I've 21 gone, you know.

22 But I don't like the relationship I have
23 with other prisoners to be leveraged for a use that I
24 don't personally intend or want, you know.

1 it all the time. I mean, that must be part of what --
2 it's hard, you know, just having to second-guess.

3 MS. PINSON: Everything.

4 MS. CHAO: Yeah.

5 MS. PINSON: Yeah. It's --

6 MS. CHAO: Well, I guess you got your full
7 hour. Are they coming around?

8 MS. PINSON: Well, it's okay.

9 MS. CHAO: I can talk until late.

10 MS. PINSON: Well, I appreciate you coming
11 to see me. And I hope the next time I come, I won't be 12 behind this glass.

13 MS. CHAO: I hope so too. I'll try to get 14 you out first again like (indiscernible).

15 MS. PINSON: Okay. Well, I know -- yeah.
16 I know my lawyers are working on it. They got the 17 message, and they're trying to get it all worked out.

18 But I guess the best thing I can do is 19 just focus on the future. But have a good Christmas
20 and New Year's, you know.

21 MS. CHAO: I'm coming back on Saturday,
22 the 18th.

23 MS. PINSON: Okay.

24 MS. CHAO: Several people didn't get their 25 mail. I don't know (indiscernible).
